Day 24

Your words were found, and I ate them, and your words became to me a joy and the delight of my heart, for I am called by your name, O Lord, God of hosts. Jeremiah 15:16 (ESV)

In our society, all a person needs to do to be considered a "Christian" is to claim to be one. It isn't altogether surprising, then, that many people make a verbal distinction between "Christian" and "REAL Christian." If you were asked to develop a questionnaire designed to identify "real" Christians, what questions would you ask? How about: "Do you consume, via reading, the Word of God with as much appetite and pleasure as you consume, via eating, your favorite foods?" Try to identify and list your emotions associated with Bible reading. Ask God to help you turn any negative emotions into "joy" and "delight".
