Day 31

The pride of your heart has deceived you, you who live in the clefts of the rock, in your lofty dwelling, who say in your heart, "Who will bring me down to the ground?" Obadiah 1:3 (ESV)

On September 11, 2001, two of the loftiest buildings in the world came crashing down. Before that day these events would have seemed impossible, unthinkable. Truly many good people worked in those buildings, and many good people died, but the buildings themselves had become symbols – recognized around the world – of wealth and power. History has demonstrated and the Bible records that people have a terrible tendency to abandon trust in the one true God and turn to worship idols, such as wealth and power. When a person gives all their time and talent to gaining wealth, and when they rely on finances, the healthcare system and military power for their security, they are worshiping idols. Talk to God honestly about how much you are truly trusting in Him. God is drawing you to Himself, because He still has work for you to do – you are still breathing, aren't you?
