Day 33

Woe to those who devise wickedness and work evil on their beds! When the morning dawns, they perform it, because it is in the power of their hand. Micah 2:1 (ESV)

If you have ever raised children you know that they often do things for no better reason than that they can. The first years in the life of a baby are devoted to learning how to do a wide variety of things, which are learned by trying. Then they practice doing them, just because they can. Capability-in-action = success → gratification. While this equation is true for everyone, what differs is the choice of which capabilities to put in action – those for doing good or those for doing evil. Try to list your capabilities, both good and bad, and commit to using the first and not the second.
