Day 34

The Lord is good, a stronghold in the day of trouble; he knows those who take refuge in him. Nahum 1:7 (ESV)

God never changes, so we know He is ALWAYS good. People, however, change – praise God that we CAN change! For example, if you have taken refuge elsewhere than in God in the past, you can change and start to trust a Father who loves you. If your life is not currently FILLED with joy then be assured there is more for you "out there". But you will probably have to learn a new way of living, and especially a new level of trust. (Remember that one definition of insanity is to do the same thing over and over, expecting different results.) God knows what you need, and it may not be what you want. List things that you want that God hasn't given you yet, then ask Him to give you a heart that wants only His will to be done in your life. God wants you to trust Him and knows whether your refuge is in Him – or not.
