Day 43

> No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him. And I will raise him up on the last day. It is written in the Prophets, 'And they will all be taught by God.' Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me. John 6:44-45 (ESV)

Many Christians are familiar with Jesus' first statement, but don't realize that He went on to explain what He meant by "unless the Father who sent me draws him". The Father reveals the truth about Himself, about the world, and about us. God's ultimate self-revelation to mankind is in, through and from Jesus, and the Bible is our record of this. Think of God's revelation of truth as having an aroma, what Paul called "the fragrance of life" for those who are being saved (2Cor 2:15-16). Those who find this aroma appealing are drawn to God's revealed truths and learn from them, and thus come to Jesus and are saved and healed. Commit yourself to an endless, growing love of the truth – eternity is filled with its sweet fragrance. What truth is God asking you to learn, today?
