Day 46

> But, on the contrary, as the Scripture says, What eye has not seen and ear has not heard and has not entered into the heart of man, [all that] God has prepared (made and keeps ready) for those who love Him [who hold Him in affectionate reverence, promptly obeying Him and gratefully recognizing the benefits He has bestowed]. [Isa. 64:4; 65:17]. Yet to us God has unveiled and revealed them by and through His Spirit, for the [Holy] Spirit searches diligently, exploring and examining everything, even sounding the profound and bottomless things of God [the divine counsels and things hidden and beyond man's scrutiny] . . . . Now we have not received the spirit [that belongs to] the world, but the [Holy] Spirit Who is from God, [given to us] that we might realize and comprehend and appreciate the gifts [of divine favor and blessing so freely and lavishly] bestowed on us by God. 1Cor 2:9,10,12 (Amplified)

How often have you heard the first part of this Scripture (up to the Isaiah reference) quoted out of context, i.e., without the rest? Paul is singing a hymn of praise to the Father for the glorious gift of His revelation, through His Spirit, of what He has prepared for those who love Him. Do you love God? If you do, the Holy Spirit has a lot to tell you – things you will enjoy hearing! Ask for revelations of the wonderful things your loving Father has in store for you. Make a list, believe the list, and REJOICE!
